MRS. LEITER AND HER DAUGHTER The Washington correspondent of the New York World says: Mis. Levi Z Leiter, accompanied by her son, Joseph A Leiter, arrived here on Thurs day and will remain for the next fort-night. Miss Nancy Leiter is in Chi cago, but will join her mother next week. Miss Daisy L-iter remains with friends in New York, but will also come to Washington in the near future.

Mrs L-iter and her daughters will pass most of the social season in Washing on, and their magnificent home on New Hampshire avenue will be opened for hospitality for the first time in two years. Mrs. Leiter is much benefited by her visit to Egypt, and has express-ed herself as pleased with again enter-ing the gay whiri at the capital.

The Misses Leiter have brought many trophies of sport and travel, and these treasures will be exhibited to their friends at the home here. Tusks, Oriental curios and Indian idols are among the co lection. It has been given a special place on the drawing-room floor of the palatial home of the Leiters.

Society is already busy speculating as to the manner of entertainments which the young ladies have in contemplation. It is said by their intimate friends that some of the customs of the Indian court where the eldest daughter of the house reigns will be introduced in Washington. Both the Misses Leiter are noted for their skill in planing social functions, and their experience at Simla is counted on to add a piquancy to the somewhat prosaic methods which

TO RIVAL BILTMORE.-William K Vanderbilt, jr., has added another great estate to the landed possessions of the family. He has bought the 3,000-acre Mounteinside farm, at Mahwah and Ramseys, N. J., the farm that was the pride and delight of the late Theodore A. Havemeyer. And young Mr. Van-Sold by Druggists in every part of the Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value coulable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winsadjoining the Havemeyer farm, in Passaic and Bergen counties. The purchase of these lands was very quietly made. On his new demesue Mr. Vanderbilt will establish a game preserve and he will have a possession that will rival that of his uncle, George Vander-bilt, at Biltmore, N. C. Those who know young "Willie K.'s" purpose say he will establish a country home for himself surrounded by vast preserves stocked with all kinds of game birds and beasts. William K. Vanderbilt, jr. left Newport at 11 o'clock on Saturday morning with his racing automobile in an effort to make a record to New York and arrived at the Harlem river bridge at a quarter to 11 o'clock Sunday night. On the machine with Mr. Vanderbilt were two men. The machine had a great headlight and one man spent all his time blowing a big hore. Mr. Vanderbilt rode on a par row rear seat. Mrs. Vanderbilt came

James Reed Injured. Mr. James Reed struck his leg agains a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whisky in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Mr. Reed is one of the leading merchants of Clay Court House, W. Vs. Pain Balm is unequaled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For
